2,556 OF US REGISTERED

Veteran Carl Wright found the army had no corner on forms to fill out and lines to stand in.

In September enrollment hit its all time high and registration took longer and became more complicated in spite of administrative efforts to keep it moving.

(1) Carl receives forms, (2) sweats it out in program check line, (3) checks with Veterans Administration, (4) finally sees daylight.

. . . AND SQUEALED

"Squeal" seems to be unique with Indiana State, having developed out of traditional sorority rush procedure on campus. Last fall the student body gathered around as some 170 girls pledged. Each girl received her sorority pledge bid at the meeting in College Hall, ran down the Administration Building steps (below), down the aisle of waiting sorority groups (below right) till she reached the group of her choice and was welcomed with appropriate enthusiasm by her new sorority sisters (top right).

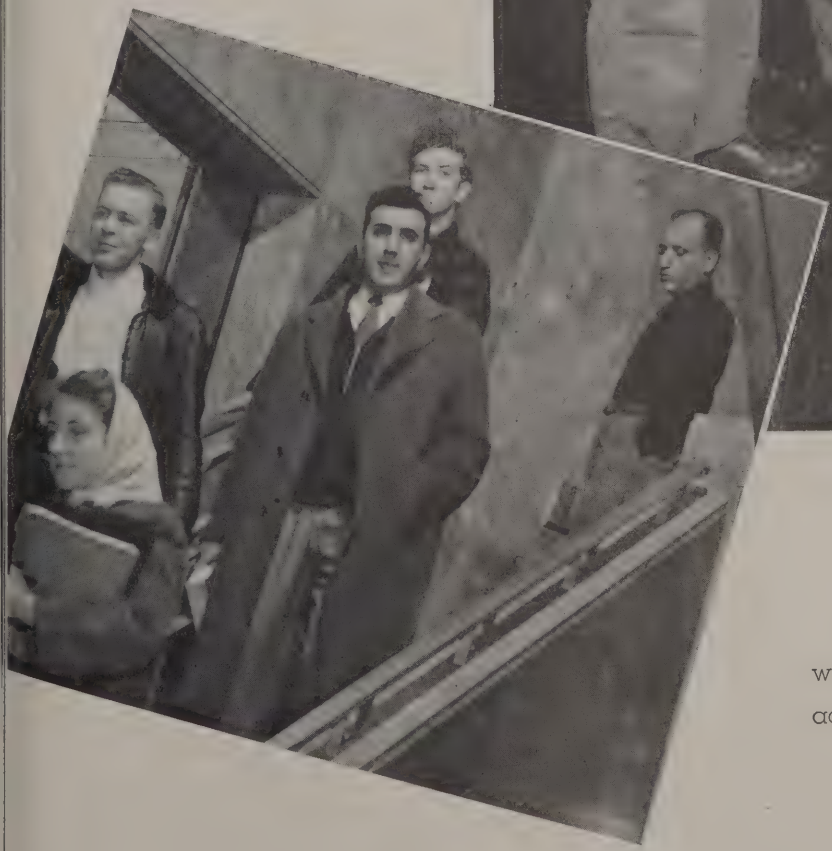
Lambda Delta Phi's colorful "Singing in the Rain" was chosen by the judges from the numerous skits given by the organized groups on campus to receive top honors.

CAMPUS REVUE HIGHLIGHTS FALL ACTIVITIES

The audience, by means of an applause meter, chose Epsilon Delta sorority's excellent minstrel skit featuring Donna Stuebe in an Al Jolson imitation.

CLASSES AND MIXERS SHARED OUR ATTENTION THOSE FIRST FEW WEEKS.

Cider and doughnuts, corn shocks, and plaid shirts added atmosphere at the Union Activities Bureau's "Harvest Festival."



With mixed attitudes we went about the business of acquiring an education.

THOUGH CROWDED, THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE . . .

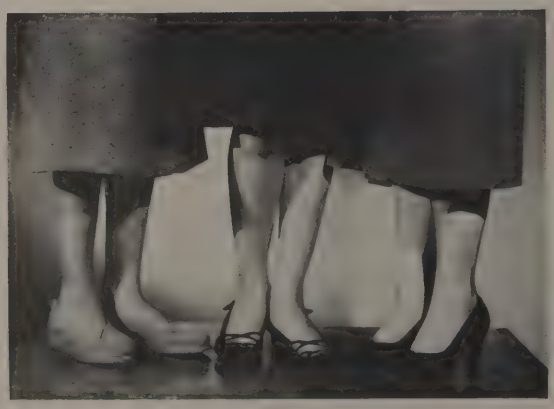
THE NEW LOOK HIT THE CAMPUS

It wasn't long before long skirts took over and State became fashion-wise—and parents groaned over new clothes bill.

Scarves and men's ties, the brighter the better, adorned sweaters and blouses.

As skirts got longer, trousers got shorter and revealed more conservative socks.



Neat feet was the rule as Robin-Hoods, latticed ballerinas, and classic pumps replaced bobby socks and saddle shoes on campus.

THROUGH THE YEAR WE OBSERVED TRADITIONS, RECEIVED NEW HONORS,

The Coalition Party, employing the help of two unsuspecting animals, put on an intensive campaign. Result: Coalition candidates captured all but one campus office.

The campus welcomed many new foreign students including Mickey Kor (Latvia), Benjamin Bogran (Honduras), Jane Kugiya (Hawaii), Lucrecia Sanchez (Colombia), Alvaro Ospiro (Colombia), Catalina Restrepo (Colombia), Salviette Marapoulou (Greece), Carlos Bogran (Honduras), Siiri Sahlman (Finland), Aslough Hjelde (Norway), Cris Cassimatis (Greece), Jean Hue (France), and Tom Jordan (England).

AND WENT INTERNATIONAL.

The traditional Book and Torch Ceremony was conducted as Don Sargent received from alumni president these two symbols and pledged $500 to Sandison Memorial Fund.

President Tirey accepted for the school a plaque awarded by the Navy for Indiana State's part in training Naval personnel during the war.

Traditional Co-Ed weekend saw co-eds again running into difficulties as they played turn about. Mary Rose Perrone, new at the game, convinced her date Bill Strange that the conventional system of boy dates girl really works best.

THE INDIANA STATESMAN. PUBLISHED WEEKLY DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR AND SUMMER SESSION,

Staff members gather around the copy desk for instructions from the editor (above). Cub Don Johnson submits a piece of copy; others clockwise around the desk are: Richard Everett, Bud Clark, Glen Sagraves, Alice Day, Bernard Wynn, Babara Kirk, Dolores McCampbell, and Vern McCarty. Others of the staff were: Alice Hellstrom, Mary Boland, Shirlee Moon, Peg Brennan, Betty Lindsay, Maynard Rich, Pat Wilson, Joan Goble, Bob Boeglin, Elynore Petyo, Emil Tessari, Pat Voke, and Jane Babcock.

this year enlarged its format to a six-column page. In the annual critical service on college papers conducted by the Associated Collegiate Press, the STATESMAN was awarded a First Class honor rating. Robert Center edited the paper for half of the year and was succeeded by Tony Mitchell. Bud Clark was business manager for the year. The adviser for the paper and for other student publications is James R. Bash.

RADIO, UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE HOOSIER SCHOOLMASTER OF THE AIR,

celebrated its fourteenth year of broadcasts over WBOW from the campus of Indiana State. Fifteen broadcasts were given weekly to schools and homes throughout the Wabash Valley. Instructional broadcasts covered science, social studies, geography, English, music, guidance, and allied fields.

Particularly popular was the Story Princess of the Music Box which reached 7,771 pupils in classrooms through one series alone. The Peter Rabbit News Service was newly inaugurated to bring into the classrooms news adapted especially for children. One hundred children every Friday was the average attendance in the studio for these programs.

Radio Guild and Radio Guild Choir provided a late evening program of entertainment for those in the Wabash Valley.

1948 SYCAMORE PRINTS THE RECORD OF THE YEAR

Editor Dorothy Martin and Business Manager Max Bough make advance plans for the book.

With the hope of presenting Indiana State at its best, the SYCAMORE staff spent much time this year in revising content and organization.

Adviser James R. Bash discusses pictures with staff consisting of (seated) Helen Nichols, associate editor; Jean Handley, art editor; Donna Steube, women's sports editor; Virginia Combs, circulation manager; Jean Cromwell, assistant business manager; Sally Young, layout staff; (standing) Katie Kane, picture staff; Jack Schroeder, sports editor; Bill Preston, organizations editor; and Tony Mitchell, copy editor. INK SENSE AND BLUE BOOK, PRESS CLUB PUBLICATIONS, Blue Book, campus directory, made its appearance in the fall under the editorship of Alice Hellstrom, and was as usual very popular. Ink Sense, long established college humor and literary magazine published three issues with new features to suit the tastes of the readers.

"Mystery at the Old Fort"

"On Borrowed Time"

A new schedule of one-act plays was instituted in the fall to offer more practice for those interested in theatre. Many well-known plays were given here as well as several original offerings written by students. Here students watch "Only the Birds", as it was seen in the Sycamore Playhouse.

COLLEGE DRAMA ON A PROFESSIONAL LEVEL

Believing that experience is necessary for good theatre, Sycamore Players under the direction of Dr. Robert Masters again traveled to New York to study contemporary theatre by visiting many current Broadway productions and theatre supply houses.

The Players' major productions of the year outside of the one-acts were "On Borrowed Time," "January Thaw," and an elaborate production of "Julius Caesar" which broke all Sycamore Players attendance records with a five-night audience of over 3,600. Other productions in conjunction with Children's Theatres were "Emperor's New Clothes," "Mystery at the Old Fort," and the world premiere of "Barnaby," written by Dr. Masters and wife Lillian and based on the famed comic strip by Crockett Johnson.

"Judge Lynch"

"The Hungerers"

CONCERT BAND. A SYMPHONY OF WINDS AND PERCUSSIONS, this year under the direction of Joseph A. Gremelspacher, assisted by George Graesch, not only brought music to those in Terre Haute but made two tours through Indiana in March and April giving a total of eight concerts.

Included in the college band program are the marching band, an all-male organization which presents marches, college songs, and novelties to crowds in the stands during the football season and which takes part in the parades of the year; and the varsity band which serves as a training group for inexperienced students and training for those who will eventually become members of the symphonic band. This organization also furnishes the spirited music for pep sessions.

Bill Hatt served as drum major in the fall, chosen because of experience and ability.

CLASSICAL, POPULAR, AND SACRED SONGS,

PRESENTED BY OTHER GROUPS,

also held our attention. Below, the CONCERT ORCHESTRA, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Hill, presented a program each quarter in which some of the most talented musicians were featured. At right, above, the CHOIR presented a program for baccalaureate and commencement exercises. The MENS GLEE CLUB, right, below, this year concluded a successful tour of northern Indiana and was warmly received by music lovers of the 'outside' cities.

Co-chairmen of the celebration were George Lowe and June Risher.

A RECORD CROWD

Even though strong and cold winds almost destroyed some of the floats, people from OUR CITY and the outer city thronged Wabash Avenue to see the colorful parade. We triumphed over St. Josephs by a score of 26 to 6.

Theme of the Gamma's winning float was "Sailing on To Victory."

ATTENDED OUR HOMECOMING.

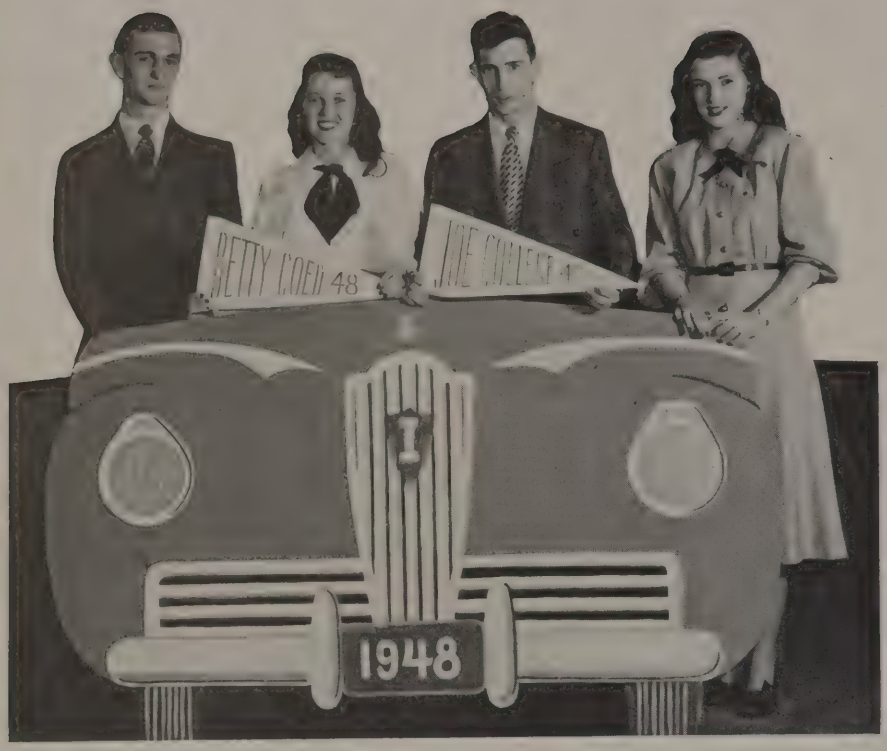
OUR SOCIAL LIFE INCLUDED MANY THINGS,



CARICATURE BALL

At the Kappa Pi Caricature Ball, Shirlee Moon and Bob Spear were chosen as typical college freshmen. Their attendants were Tom Keiser and Rosie Heidenger.

SONG

At the annual Song Fest, the Alpha Sigs captured the fraternity cup for the second consecutive year.

SUCH AS . . .

MIDWEST BASKETBALL TOURNEY

At the Midwest Basketball Tourney, Carol Cottom was elected Queen. Her attendants were Dorothy Lexier and Marilyn Hastings.

FEST

The Kappas won the sorority cup at the Song Fest.

THE CRYSTAL BALL

Duke Ellington's orchestra drew a record crowd to the Armory when the Woman's League sponsored the Crystal Ball.

AND JUNIOR PROM HIGHLIGHT OUR FORMAL SEASON

As in any college the Junior Prom is the dance of the year with not only the excitement of a star band but the selection of a queen.

The queen of the 1947 Junior Prom and her attendants were selected by staffers of Mademoiselle Magazine. During the intermission, President Tirey crowned the queen. Marilyn Dorsey, and announced her attendants, Lee Coryell and Mary Alice Klein. The crowd danced to the music of Ray McKinley and his orchestra.

WE EXPRESSED PRIDE IN OUR CITY BY CONDUCTING

Above, Alice Hellstrom, Joan Mattix, and Rosy Garner do their bit by picking up stray pieces of paper.

Hoping to start an annual event, Alpha Phi Omega, honorary Boy Scout fraternity, sponsored the first clean-up campaign. In 1947, with the aid of a very large part of the student body, the campus presented a clean face after only an hour of concentrated activity.

AN ACTIVE CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

Ably manned by five students, the fire hose washed away the winter's accumulation of dirt.

Students gather in front on the Union Building to begin the task of beautifying the campus.

HONOR DAY BRINGS SMILES TO DESERVING STUDENTS

Prizes are given to those who are outstanding in either curricular or extra-curricular activities. Winners of the various awards were: English award, Jerry McGrew Newman; SAI Honor certificate, Marilyn Buchanan; French award, Miriam Rippetoe; Spanish award, Barbara Toth; Intercollegiate Debate, Ellis Anderson; Pi Omega Pi award, Valeria Valente; Lammers award, Elizabeth Concannon Schmidt; Pamarista Outstanding Freshman Woman, Alice Hellstrom; Ryan Home Economics award, Marjorie Collings; Yager Industrial Arts award, John W. NEWMAN CLUB, a member of the National Newman Club Federation, is composed of Catholic students at Indiana State and Rose Polytechnic Institute. The purpose of the club is to sponsor religious, intellectual, and social interests. At the meetings, which are held semi-monthly, the chaplain lectures on Catholic philosophy, and discussion of the lecture follows. Social activities include several parties at Allendale Lodge, picnics, and special get-togethers.

Officers for this year are Ray Reschan, Indiana State, president; Mike Gordon, Indiana State, vice-president; Joe Boeckman, Rose Polytechnic, second vice-president; Rose Louise Schaeffer, Indiana State, treasurer; and Peggy Gallagher, Indiana State, secretary. Sponsor of the club is Miss Margaret Wisely. Father Hickey of St. Ann's parish is chaplain.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA,

an active organization for those interested in teaching as a career, sponsored the Conference for Elementary Teacher Recruitment and acted as host to the Wabash Valley Teachers Institute. The officers of the year are: Gale Clark, president; Mary Xurafes, vice-president; Betty McKnight, secretary; William Anthis, treasurer; and Alice Hellstrom, public relations. Fred Swalls is the faculty sponsor.

FORENSIC,

a group of students participating in forensics, debating, oratory, public discussion, and extemporaneous speaking, participated in four intercollegiate conferences this year and sponsored the Fourth Annual Intercollegiate Speech tournament here. One hundred and fifty students and instructors from 23 colleges participated in the contests. Among State's achievements this year was a tie for first place with Bowling Green State University in the Delta Sigma Rho tournament. Four of State's winning representatives are pictured here from left to right: Gene Moore, Alfred Cassell, Joe Fuher, and Hal Kesler.

campus Negro organization, is progressive in building social, educational, and racial good-will on the campus. The educational committee fostered monthly discussions for the betterment of interracial relations. The tenth anniversary of the club was observed with a special meeting. The officers of the year are: Noble Nolcox, president; Emmett Hardiman, vice-president; Hazel H. Bass, secretary, and Catherine Combs, treasurer.

ELEMENTARY CLUB,

the Indiana State branch of the Association for Childhood Education, is composed of elementary majors. There were 86 members after initiation last fall. Homecoming Breakfast was the largest in the history of the organization. Members sold Christmas cards and gave a tea for high school seniors in the spring. The officers of the year are: Jayne Beldon, president; Rebecca Shedd, vice-president; Wilma Korff, secretary; June Billings, treasurer; Irene Sallay, publicity chairman. Faculty sponsor is Miss Reed.

made up of women physical education majors and those interested in sports, gives an annual party for freshmen and holds a Christmas Sing. They operate concessions at the Wabash Valley Tournament, go on annual camping trips to McCormick's Creek State Park in the spring, see movies on camping to further interest in summer camps, and enjoy a dinner for graduating seniors. "If" is awarded to seniors for inspiration to success and happiness. ("If" has more meaning to women PE readers.) The officers of the year are: Dot Shields, president; Ruth Gleason Shaller, vice-president; Donna Stuebe, secretary; and Sharon Richardson, treasurer.

established many years ago and predominantly social in nature, has been an active departmental organization since its beginning. Membership in the club is gained either by formal study of Latin or through interest in the language created by previous study. It is traditional with the club to go caroling each year; the carols are sung in Latin, of course.

properly known as the Ivah Rhyan Home Economics Club provides social, business, and professional experiences through participation in club life. The meetings may be in the form of a tea, a luncheon, breakfast, a dinner, a party, or an open meeting. The officers of the year are: Hariett Jane Hurst, president; Josephine Henderson, vice-president; Aleana Phillips, secretary; Evelyn White, treasurer; Carol Rust, historian; Rose Marie Fischer, reporter; Letha Leithe, registrar.

COMMERCE CLUB,

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB,

an organization of industrial arts majors, strives to promote closer relationship among its members and to further the educational opportunities of the group. Its activities include educational movies, lectures, smokers, parties, and dances. The officers of the year are: Leonard Tavern, president; Raymond E. Jones, vice-president; and Bob Morgan, secretary-treasurer. Faculty sponsor is John C. Tranbarger.

VETERANS CLUB,

The Veterans Club, composed of honorably discharged veterans of World War II, was organized for the good of the veteran, school, and community.

Beginning in the fall of 1945, the activities of the club have included social events, campus mixers, and many campaigns for the betterment of the State campus.

Once each quarter some event is held which is open to members of the club only. A formal dance, a Hobo party and an all-day picnic were the events of the 1947-48 school year.

On the night of each registration day the Vets Club sponsors an all-campus mixer in the Union Building. Music is furnished and all students are invited.

When the veterans began returnig to school in large numbers, many problems arose. Most of these were solved by close co-operation of the club with the college administration.

Almost every activity on the campus is represented in the Veteran's Club.

ALPHA SORORITY

A modern Santa Claus Katie Cane passed out gifts to Alphas at the Christmas Party.

President.....DOROTHY MARTIN
Vice President.....HELEN NICHOLS
Secretary.....MARILYN IRWIN
Treasurer.....ALICE BUTLER
Sgt. at Arms.....JANE NEET
Reporter.....KATE CANE

Alpha welcomed twenty-six pledges following a colorful rush season featuring an open house, "College Inn," a tropical party, and the traditional Silver Star dinner. Fall activities centered around a French-styled pledge dance at Allendale Lodge, and a Christmas pledge party, and winter and spring brought a novel Friday 13th party and spring dance. At homecoming Alpha welcomed alumns to a dinner at the Wabash Room. Open houses were given throughout the year for the three fraternities.

Alphas supported CARE, Red Cross, and the World Student Service Fund.

Applause went to 1947 Prom Queen Marilyn Dorsey and Caricature Ball Queen Shirlee Moon, also selected outstanding pledge, and Roberta Mitchell chosen outstanding senior woman and elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Alpha claimed second place in 1947 Song Fest and shared second place for both Judge and Audience award in Campus Revue for their Gay Nineties act.

DELTA SIGMA

this year not only retained sorority volleyball championship but also took first place in sorority basketball. A successful rush resulted in twelve new pledges. Delta Sigs' campus revue offering was the rhythmic "Basin Street," and their home-coming float called "We'll Break the Record" featured goalposts and novel record hats.

Social events of the year included a home-coming dinner at the Castle Roma, a pledge dance, and an open house given for Delta Sigs by the Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity. Many Delta Sigs were represented in organizations on campus. Jane Babcock was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Outstanding pledge for the year was Peg Brennan.

started an active year with a fall open house for the faculty and all campus organizations. Twenty-seven pledges took ribbons after a rush week-end including a Chinese party, an open house, and the Red-Rose dinner. "Night and Day" was the Gamma Campus Revue feature. At home-coming Gammas won first place for their float "Smooth Sailing for State" and received the new trophy. A new song written by Ginny Baldwin was added to the Gamma repertoire and the constitution was revised and amended. Gammas applauded sister Carol Cottom who was selected as Midwest Basketball Tourney Queen, and her attendant Dot Lexier, also Lee Coryell, 1947 Prom attendant, and Gloria Love selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Other Gamma highlights were Christmas Party, Holly Hop, May Tea, and April Dance.

began the year with activities including an Oriental party, carnival night, and the final rush banquet. Their Campus Revue skit called "Dance to the Princess" was centered around Jane Kugiya, student from Hawaii. The highlight of the year was a Shimmering Starlight Ball in December. A more informal affair was the square-dance party in November.

The constitution was revised during the year, and a new service committee was organized which provided recreational facilities for children of the Chauncey Rose Home and planning service through other agencies.

OMEGA SIGMA CHI CELEBRATING THE FIFTIETH YEAR

More than half a century ago forward-looking women of Terre Haute realized the need of the women students of the State Normal School for a larger, well-rounded social life. As a result of their efforts Woman's League was formed and students were divided into groups of twenty. The first group filled was named Omega Sigma Chi. 1947 marked the Golden Anniversary of the sorority and the year was marked with many activities.

In October representatives of the Alpha section in Terre Haute the Beta section in Muncie, and the Indianapolis group met to plan the celebration. In December the Golden Jubilee formal dinner was held in the Hoosier Room of the Deming where sixty Omegas and their guests met. On December 26 further celebrations took the form of a Yuletide Tea.

Throughout the fifty years of Omega Sigma Chi's existence, hundreds of State women have joined in the fellowship of the sorority.

The whole campus joined in wishing the Omegas a happy birthday.

Fraternity members Charles Anderson, David Smith, Clinton Mitchum, and Thomas Waldon make plans for the annual Sweetheart Ball.

is the Chi Sigma chapter of the only national fraternity on campus and has just completed its second year. This year the chapter sent its first delegate to the national conclave at Detroit. Its activities for the year included a very creditable showing in intra-mural sports and a good scholastic record. Hardly out of its infancy, the fraternity chapter is making plans for a highly constructive program for accomplishing high scholastic standing on campus.

Officers for the year were: Douglas Moody, basileus; Emmett Hardiman, vice-basileus; David Stewart, keeper of records and seals; William Baker, keeper of finance; Bernard Render chapter editor; Joseph Smith, chaplain; Charles Anderson, sergeant-at-arms; and Luther Mitchell, keeper of peace.

won, for the second consecutive year, the annual Song Fest cup in the men's division. Their skit, "Dark Haven," took second place in the judges' decision of Campus Revue. Activities for the year included a Home-coming dinner at the Elks City Club, a "Snow-Ball" in December, a St. Patrick's dance in March, several open houses for the sororities, and their social season was climaxed with the annual Pirates' Ball at Rea Park Country Club. Members of the organization are represented in Blue Key, Alpha Phi Gamma, Theta Alpha Phi, Kappa Delta Pi, Student Council, Sinfonia, and many other honoraries. Members are also actively engaged in athletics and in school publications.

Fraternity officers for the first half of the year were: Dick Yates, president; Bud Clark, vice-president; Walter Anderson, secretary; and Gene Vigus, treasurer. Those who served during the latter half were: Max Bough, president; Jay Leavitt, vice-president; John Perona, secretary; and Gene Vigus, treasurer.

FORUM FRATERNITY

won second place audience award in Campus Revue with its humorous skit, "Baloney, Where She Danced." Activities for the year included a Homecoming dance at the Deming Ballroom, a Homecoming dinner at the George Washington club, and a January dance at Allendale Lodge. Theme of the Homecoming float was "We'll Roll Little Joe." A new fraternity song, "Sweetheart of the Forum," was written by one of the members and introduced at the Homecoming dance. In intramurals, the Forums placed first in the swimming meet and second in the football events. Members of the organization participated in student publications, athletics, and hold membership in Blue Key, Alpha Phi Gamma, and other honorary organizations.

Officers for the year were: Paul Lindsey, president; Jack Kerins, vice-president; Bruno Lupato, secretary; and William Zwerner, treasurer.

EARNING A LIVING IS IMPORTANT TO ALL,
OUR SALARY IS GRADES

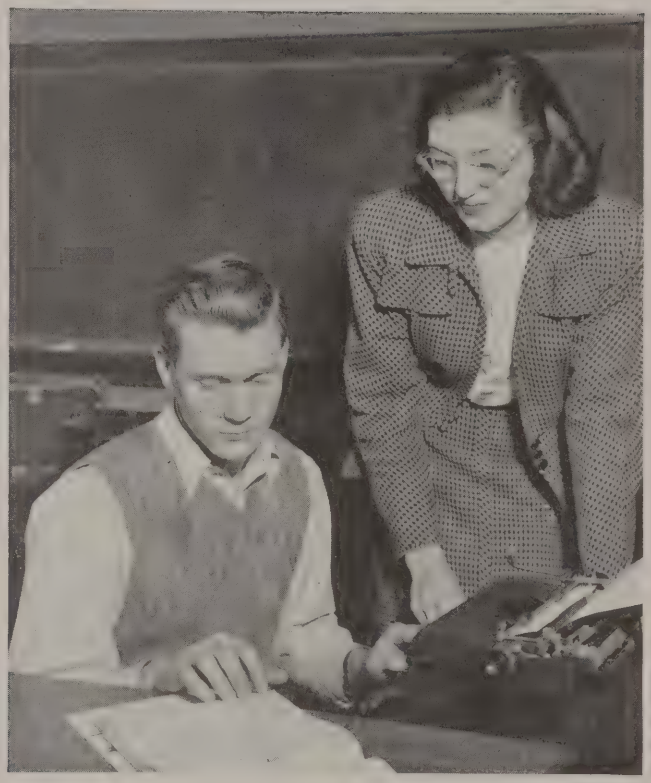
AND OUR LABOR IS STUDYING.
AT THE END OF EACH QUARTER,

STUDENTS LEARN BY DOING . . .

Sculpturing, a lost art in many parts of the world, was not neglected at Indiana State. Here students shaped human likenesses in clay and cast in plaster.

ACTUAL PRACTICE IS A NECESSITY FOR MASTERING THE FINER ARTS

"Now is the time for . . ." beats a measured rhythm into the subconscious of the typewriting student, but it increases his familiarity with the keyboard and makes for adept typists.



Holiday for strings. The college string group, an active ensemble with a desire to make their instruments speak eloquence, put in long hours striving for perfec'ion.

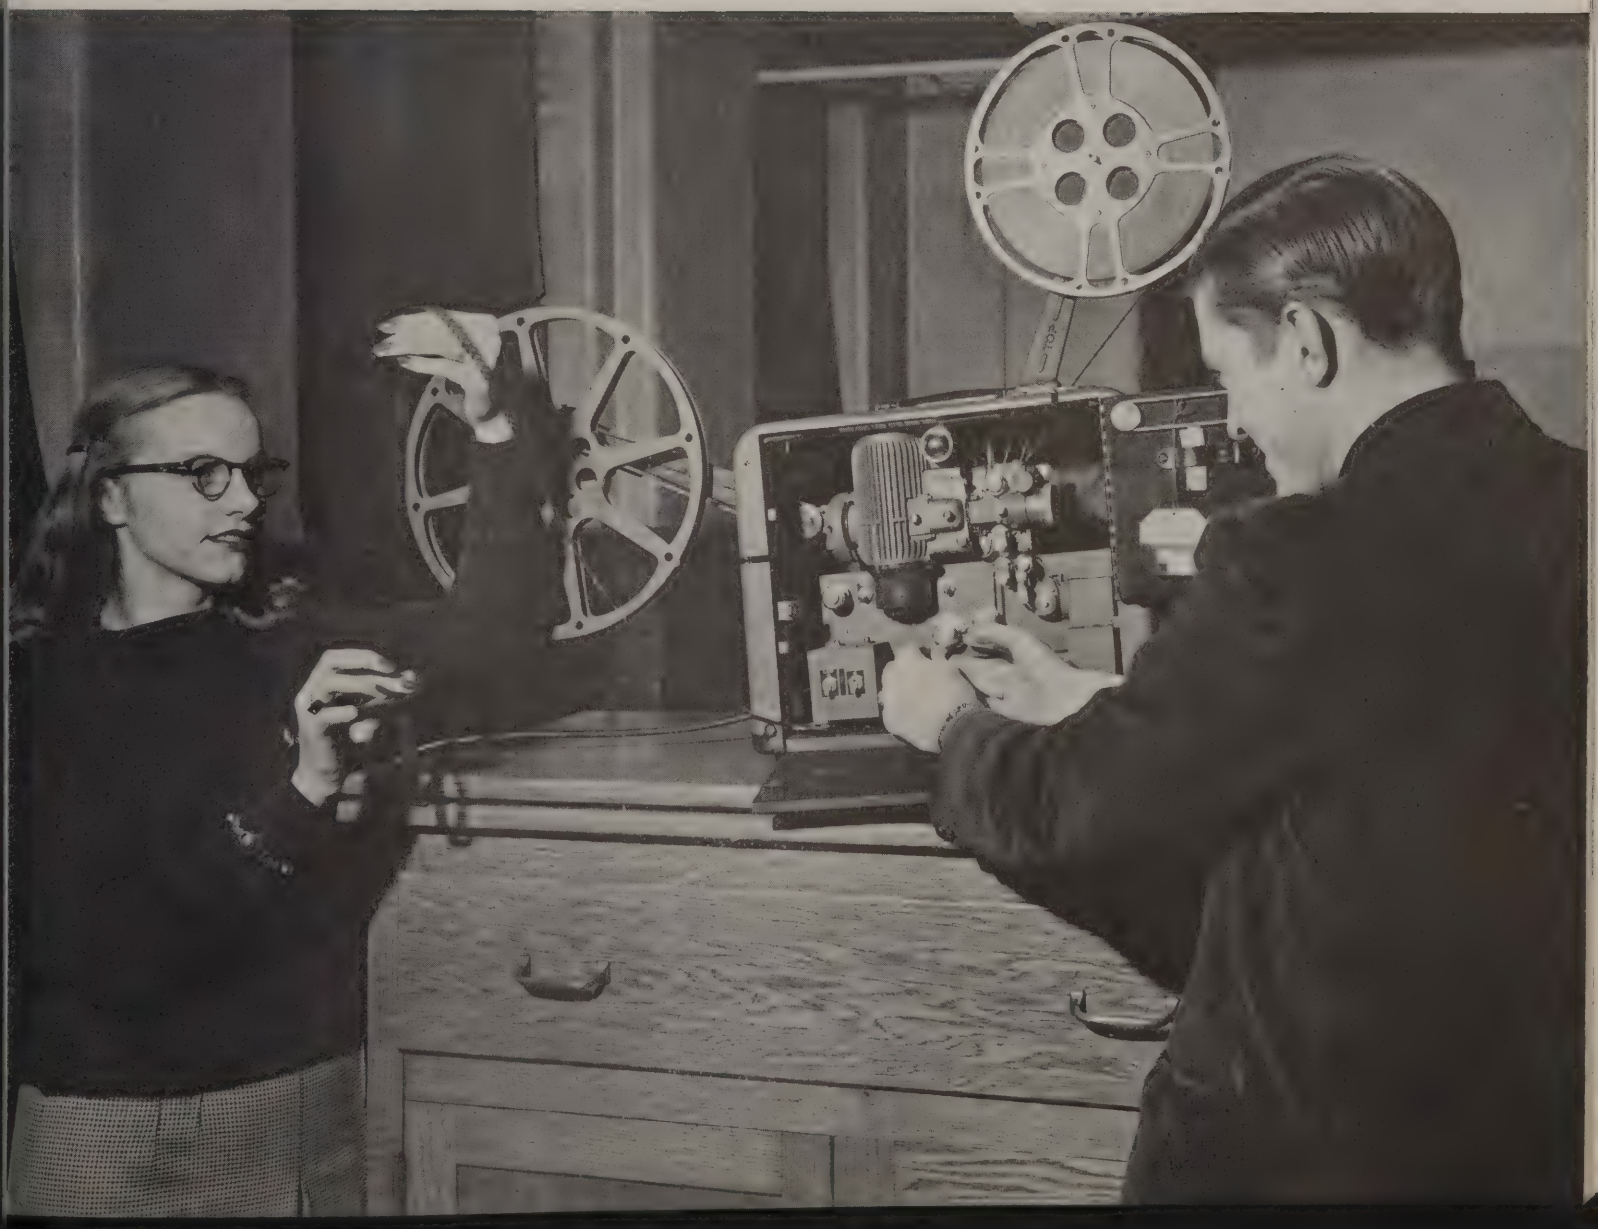
OUR COURSES OF STUDY FOLLOWED

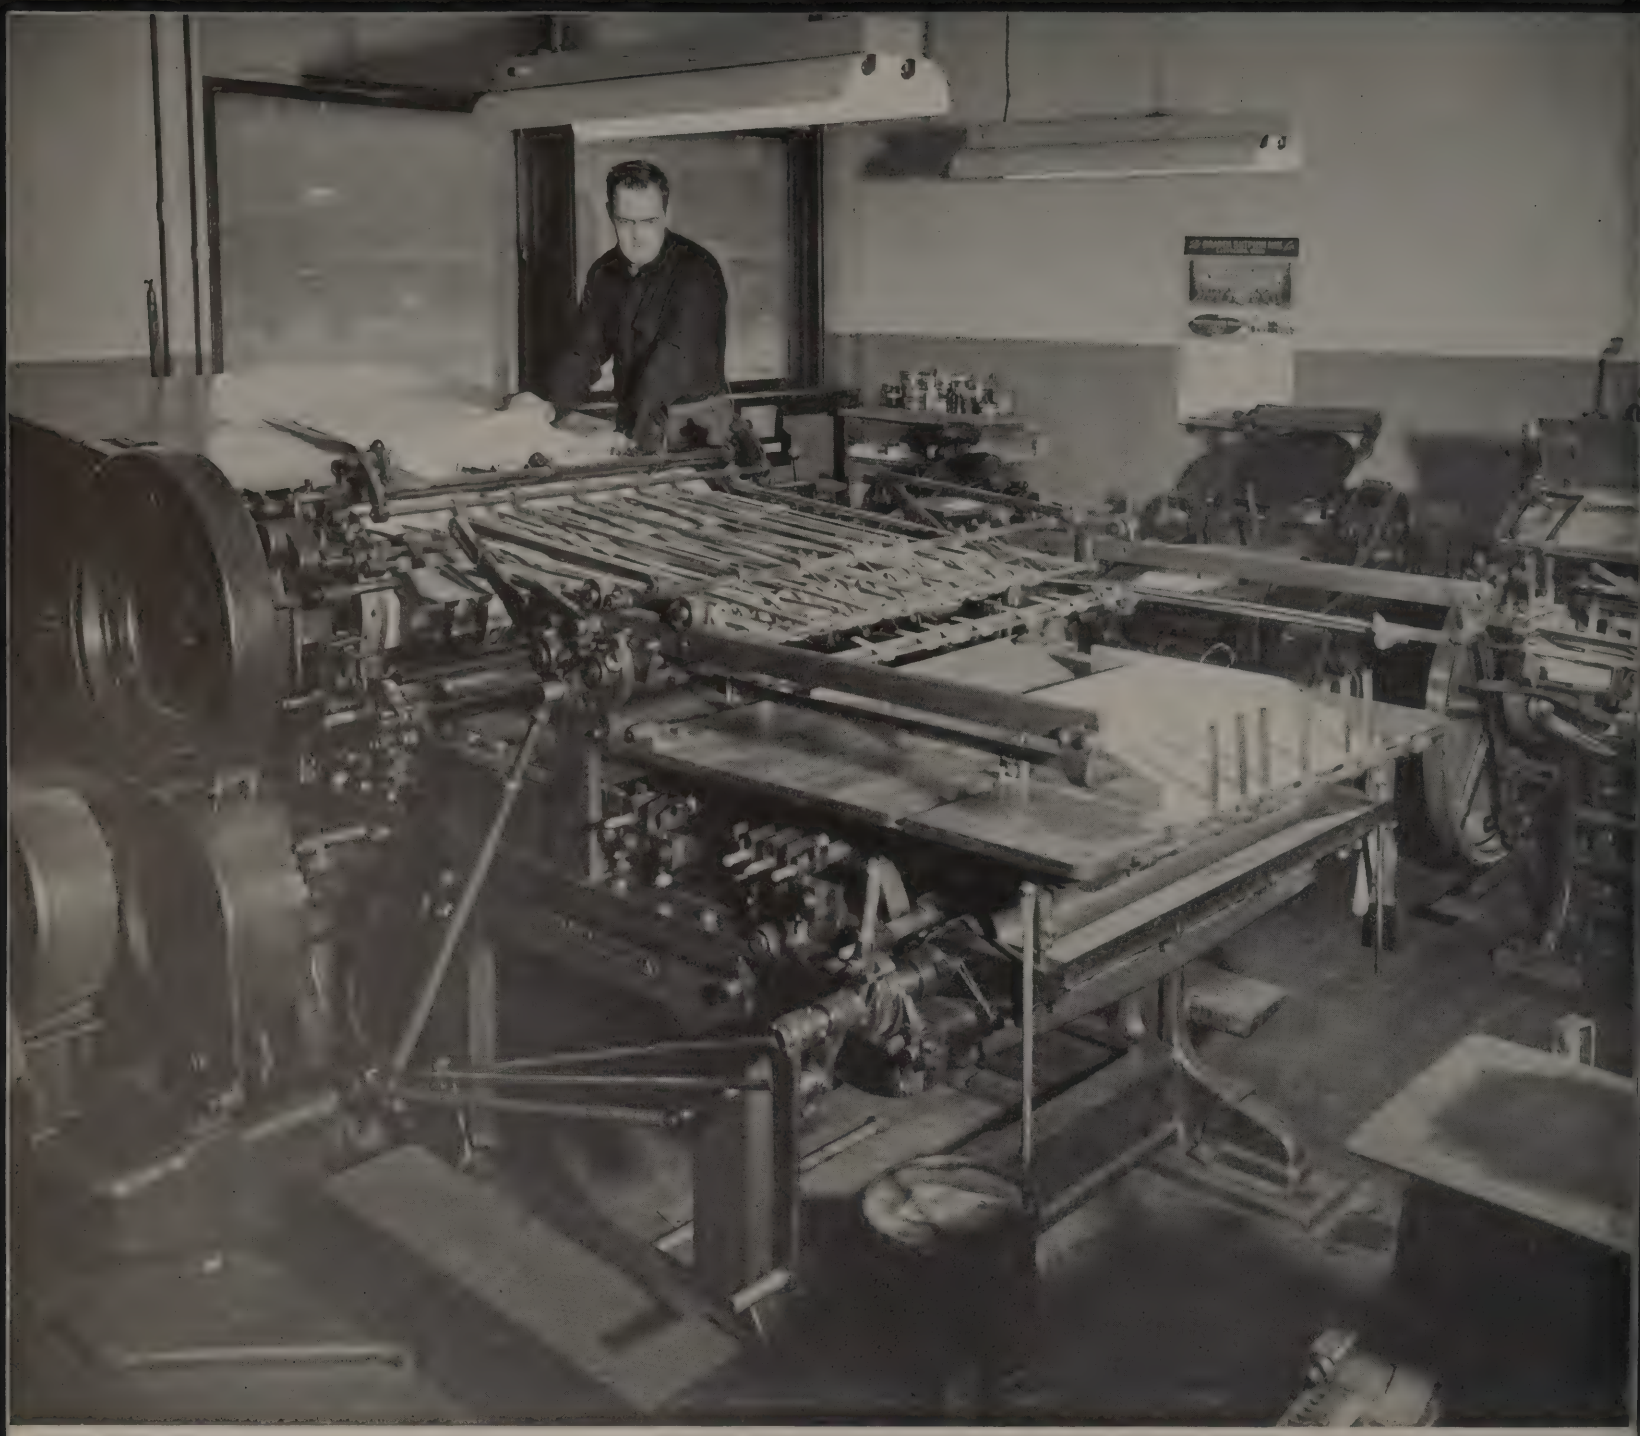
The nation today looks to its chemists to keep ahead of the rest of the world in the scientific attainment of peace as well as the lethal products of war.

The essence of modern dance class is free expression. Women learned to move with the studied grace of the prima donna.

PRACTICAL LINES. AND WE STUDIED AND LEARNED

Visual aids are an indispensable part of the classroom. Indiana State teaches its teaching students to know thoroughly the movie projector.





PRACTICE SUPPLEMENTED THEORY

as is shown here while a student operates a printing press in turning out an actual order of job printing. The Industrial Arts department also trains in other mechanical skills and maintains much up-to-date equipment.

WE LEARNED PERSUASION

Long noted for its speech department, Indiana State turns out forensic and public speaking majors par excellence. Many extra curricular debate clubs, speaking, and theatre groups offer excellent practice for the speech-minded.

WE LEARNED BY DOING

In order that home economics majors might better understand the problems which would confront them later, State maintains a home management house on campus which houses these girls. Modern home equipment helps train girls in the fine arts of planning homes, meals, care of children, and becoming a gracious hostess.

WE GAVE SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE EXCEPTIONAL ELEMENTARY PUPILS.

Physically handicapped and mentally retarded children receive particular care in the Special Education Clinic in the Laboratory School, where they are taught to adjust themselves to the outside world. Many individual conference rooms and up-to-date mechanical aids and testing equipment add to the effectiveness of this department's work.

WE TRAINED AS BAND MASTER AND SCOUT MASTER

Mr. Gremelspacher has developed in the band a well-knit, smooth-functioning organization whose music stirs the public's musical soul. Students other than music majors are encouraged to express their desire to make music and enjoy it in this and other musical groups.

Men Physical Education majors are required to take a Boy Scout course from which they receive, at the conclusion of the term, a card authorizing them to take over the duties of Scoutmaster.

HIGH HONORS CAME TO THOSE WHO ACCOMPLISHED THE YEAR IN OUR

celebrated its tenth year on campus. Pamarista, with its limited membership of thirty, strives to select members on the basis of leadership in many fields. During the year Pamarista members sold Tuberculosis seals, entertained foreign exchange students, and in conjunction with Blue Key sponsored the filling of Thanksgiving baskets by all campus organizations, and carried out collections for the World Student Service Fund. The social event of Pamarista's year was the colorful Rainbow Ball given in March.

began its year by holding a joint meeting with its counterpart, Pamarista. One of its most outstanding service contributions during the year was the project of distributing Thanksgiving baskets furnished by other campus organizaions. In co-operation with Pamarista, it also performed the annual function of securing and decorating the Union Building's Christmas tree.

Other activities which involved Pamarista-Blue Key were the sponsoring of the reception given for the Danish Gymnastics team, and the holding of a Home-coming dinner at the Deming Hotel. Members are selected on merits of their college record which includes leadership, service, and devotion to Christian ideals.

Officers for the year were: Dennis Trueblood, president; Jack Hopkins, vice-president; Paul Benke, secretary-treasurer; and Don Sargent, historian.

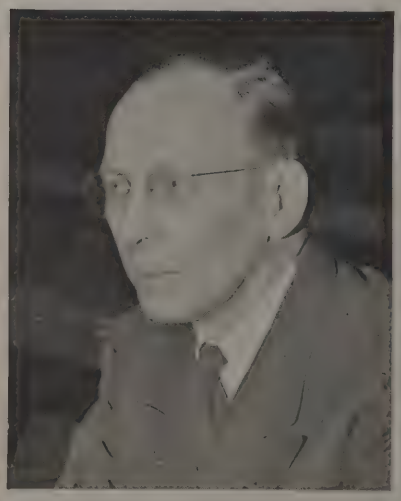
Four men helped put State on the athletic map this year. Left to right, Dr. David A. Glascock, Wabash '09, acting head of the athletic department and track coach; Walter E. Marks, Chicago '27, head football coach and baseball coach; John R. Wooden, Purdue '32, athletic director and head basketball coach; and Paul Selge, Indiana State '43, swimming coach and assistant football coach.

State and college athletics lost a friend with the passing of Arthur L. Strum last August. For 25 years Mr. Strum guided Blue and White athletic teams.



President Stan Sajko of the I Men's Club talks with Frank Svarczkopf, treasurer; Ed Powell, vice-president; and Don McDonald, secretary.

THE I MEN'S CLUB, ASSOCIATION OF LETTER-MEN, is composed of those men who earn an I in varsity athletics. The club's purpose is to secure better conditions at State for athletics and to promote school spirit. Among the club's many acivities are the selling of green hats to freshmen, sponsoring a swimming meet, and the hanging of pictures of athletic teams in the gymnasium. The club boasts this year of the largest membership in the history of the organization.

FOOTBALL FILLED FALL WITH ACTIVITY

Selected by his teammates as most valuable player was Stewart Faught. The redheaded quarterback was one of the finest passers in State's football history in addition to being an able quarterback.

The Sycamore gridders were definitely better than average. Hometown fans were treated to victories in all three home games. In winning two of five contests abroad, the Blue and White overall season's record was five wins and three losses against stiff competition.

IT'S A TOUCHDOWN AS WOOLSEY GOES OVER WITH A TACKLER IN TOW.

The Sycamores were a second-half team, but always seemed able to make a spirited come-back. In the Valparaiso game Max Woolsey returned a punt for 70 yards, and Bob Brady scored on a pass. Against Southern Illinois, quarterback Stewart Faught threw two touchdown passes as the Sycamores came from behind to win. Captain Stan Sajko also scored.

State scored in every period to spoil Illinois Wesleyan's home-coming 26-13. Woolsey dashed 78 yards. Eastern Illinois found the Sycamore's spirit too much to cope with. Bob Chester kicked the game-winning point. The Marksmen scored four times in the last half to beat St. Joseph's 26-6. George Graves and Faught each passed for and scored a touchdown.

BASKETBALL IN '47 AND '48

In winning 29 games and losing only seven, the '47-'48 Sycamores' record was the finest in the history of the school. They won the annual Mid-Western Tournament with little trouble. Starting fast they won eleven out of twelve games, bowing only to Notre Dame. The Sycamores scored a total of 2287 points to break the team scoring record. These are just a few reasons why this was truly a year of champions at Indiana State.

Head Coach Johnny Wooden and his assistant Ed Powell who welded together the winning Sycamores.

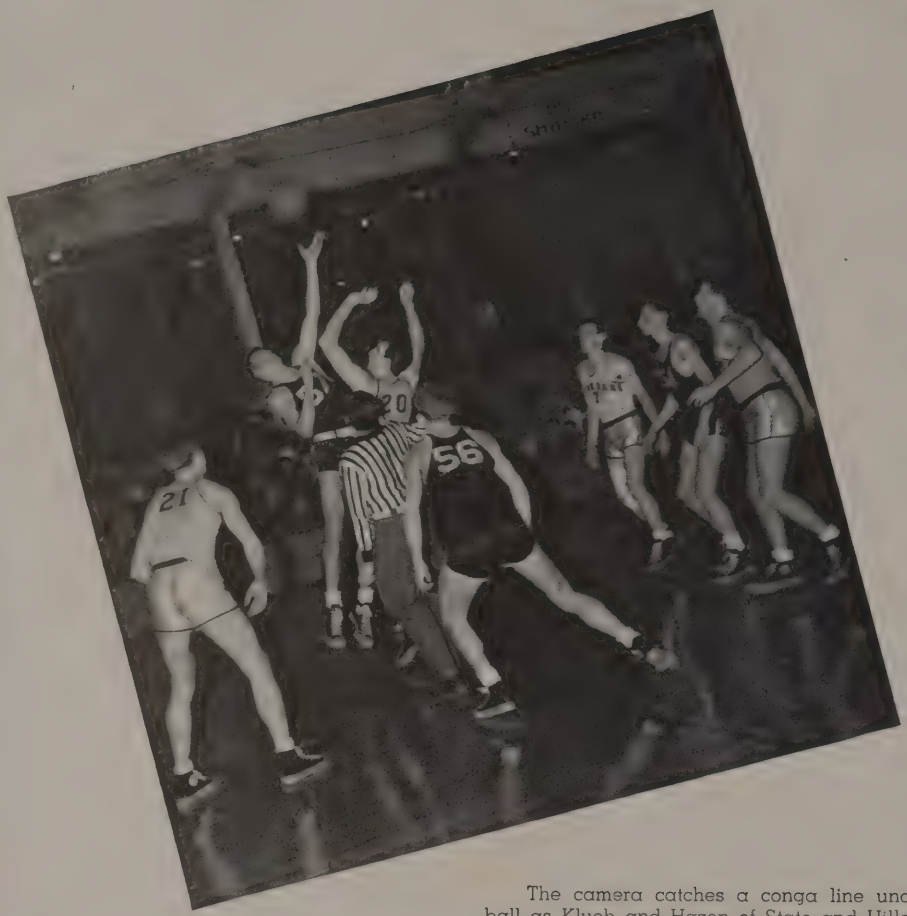
STATE MET NOTRE DAME



For the first time in history State played Notre Dame and although the Sycamores came out on the short end of a 66-49 count the Irish knew they had met a worthy opponent.

Dan Dimich goes up to take jump ball from Brennan, N.D. All-American guard. Kevin O'Shea (7) Don McDonald (56) and Duane Klueh look on.

The camera catches a conga line under the basket. Gordon of Notre Dame comes out with ball as Klueh and Hazen of State and Hiller of Notre Dame line up behind him. Lenny Rzeszewski 58 waits his chance.

KANSAS CITY TOURNEY

As Coach Wooden looks on with considerable pride Duane Klueh receives the most valuable player medal from the tournament president.

The Sycamores' showing at National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball Tourney in Kansas City brought fame to the team, a most valuable player award to Duane Klueh, and announcement of Duane Klueh and Bob Royer as members of All-American team. Defeating St. Francis 72-40, Brigham Young 82-68, San Jose 59-52, and Hamline 66-65 brought State to the final game where they were defeated by a powerful Louisville team 80 to 72. It was the second time Sycamores had claimed runner-up honors.

Come on you Sycamores! Manager Stanley Jacobs and honorary coach Major Charles Stevenson pull hard from the sidelines. Stevenson was State's official host at the tourney.

Max Woolsey (73) grabs the ball from Brigham Young U. man during State's 82-68 victory at Kansas City. Dimich (57), Klueh (54) and Royer (34) rush to his aid.

BROUGHT EXCITEMENT AND NATIONAL ACCLAIM.

A new high in excitement was reached in the semi-final game against Hamline, and all in the last few minutes of play. With State trailing 58-60 and with two seconds to play, Duane Klueh was fouled. His calm free throws threw the game into an overtime. Hamline gained a 65-64 lead and fans thought "it was good while it lasted," but with 11 seconds remaining in the overtime, a double foul brought the play to the center of the floor. Klueh claimed the ball and shot for the basket just as the gun sounded. The ball dropped through the basket and State won 66-65. Even fans at home by their radios went wild.

Enthusiasm marked the Welcome Home as the student body turned out to meet the team with a parade that stopped traffic for a half hour. Dignitaries appeared on the program which honored Coach Wooden and his team. An unforgettable weekend in State's sports history.

THE TENNIS TEAM claimed a victory over their foe Indiana University and whitewashed Canterbury and Eastern Illinois. Also beat Butler's powerful Bulldogs for a highly successful season. Ed Lash, Perry Fouty, Charles Austin, and Duane Klueh won match deciding sets against I. U. Perry Fouty served as player-coach.

THE TRACK TEAM placed fourth in a field of 28 teams in the Illinois Tech relays. Also won a fourth place in Purdue Relays plus a commendable showing in Little State. Kinney was Little State 440 champion for second year. Jack Rice stood out in 100-yard dash and the team scored a total of 99 points in one meet. Crack relay team was made up of McCarty, Clarke, McGill, and Kinney.

SPRING SPORTS WERE IMPORTANT TOO.

THE BASEBALL team had a successful season winning eleven games and losing only two. They claimed victories over Evansville, Valparaiso, St. Joseph's, Indiana Central, Ball State, and two over Wabash, Canterbury and Eastern Illinois. Whitey Roeschlein was standout pitcher, facing 29 batters and gave only two hits as Sycamores won 1-0 over Evansville as Rzeszewski singled home winning run with two out in the last of the ninth.

The GOLF TEAM won second place in triangular meet with Valpo and Eastern Illinois. Also beat Loyola, Earlham, and Canterbury and claimed third place in Little State meet. Russ Bolin was player-coach. Bolin, Lamb, and Harris turned in several low scores.

CROSS COUNTRY

SWIMMING TEAM

OUTSTANDING SYCAMORES

CHOSEN FROM THE FOUR MAJOR SPORTS

DUANE KLUEH, leading scorer in State basketball history. First State athlete to win All-American honors. Most valuable player in Mid-Western Tourney and Kansas City National Tourney.

PAUL THOMAS, one of the many standouts on baseball team. As assistant coach, he doubled as third baseman. He was the spark plug of the infield. Timely hitting and accurate aim.

KENNETH KINNEY, outstanding track performer for the past three seasons. His 49.8 quarter-mile is a record for State. Little State 440-yard dash champion three consecutive years. Also consistent winner in the hurdles: Racehorse form.

STAN SAJKO, captained the Sycamore eleven last fall. As an end, Sajko not only was top-flight defensively, but caught his share of passes. Sajko's judgment on the field was also a valuable asset.

INTRAMURAL

SPORTS BROUGHT FURTHER ROUNDING OF SPORTS PROGRAM

The greatest number of participants in history were part of the intramural program this year. In addition to pictured activities, a basketball officials club was formed. Last year the Fighting Blues, northern independents, won the trophy and showed promise of winning it again this year. A fraternity trophy was initiated this year by the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Fall quarter activities included touch football, tennis tournaments, a cross country meet, and a volleyball tournament. In the winter a basketball tournament was held as well as a bowling league, ping-pong tournament, and handball tournament. Spring saw tournaments in golf, softball, horseshoes, and track and field meets.

Swimming winners Joe DePeugh, Jack Sutherland, and Ed Hauer are shown here ready for a plunge in the Student Union Building pool.

WOMENS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

OFFERS AN ACTIVITY FOR EVERY GIRL

Dolphin Club for those aquatic-minded girls, Orchesis for the future Martha Grahams, and Officials Club for those interested in officiating, also come under WAA activities.

Shooting straight for the bulls eye. With her eye on that target, Ruth Schaller prepares to let fly!

Dolphin Club is the goal for all advanced swimmers. Bottom row: Jane Bedwell, Nancy Ritter, Marion Stambaugh, Ferne Price.

Eleanor Forsythe, Florence Curtis, and Ruby East—the understanding faculty. They're always on hand with that much needed advice, for which the group is ever grateful.

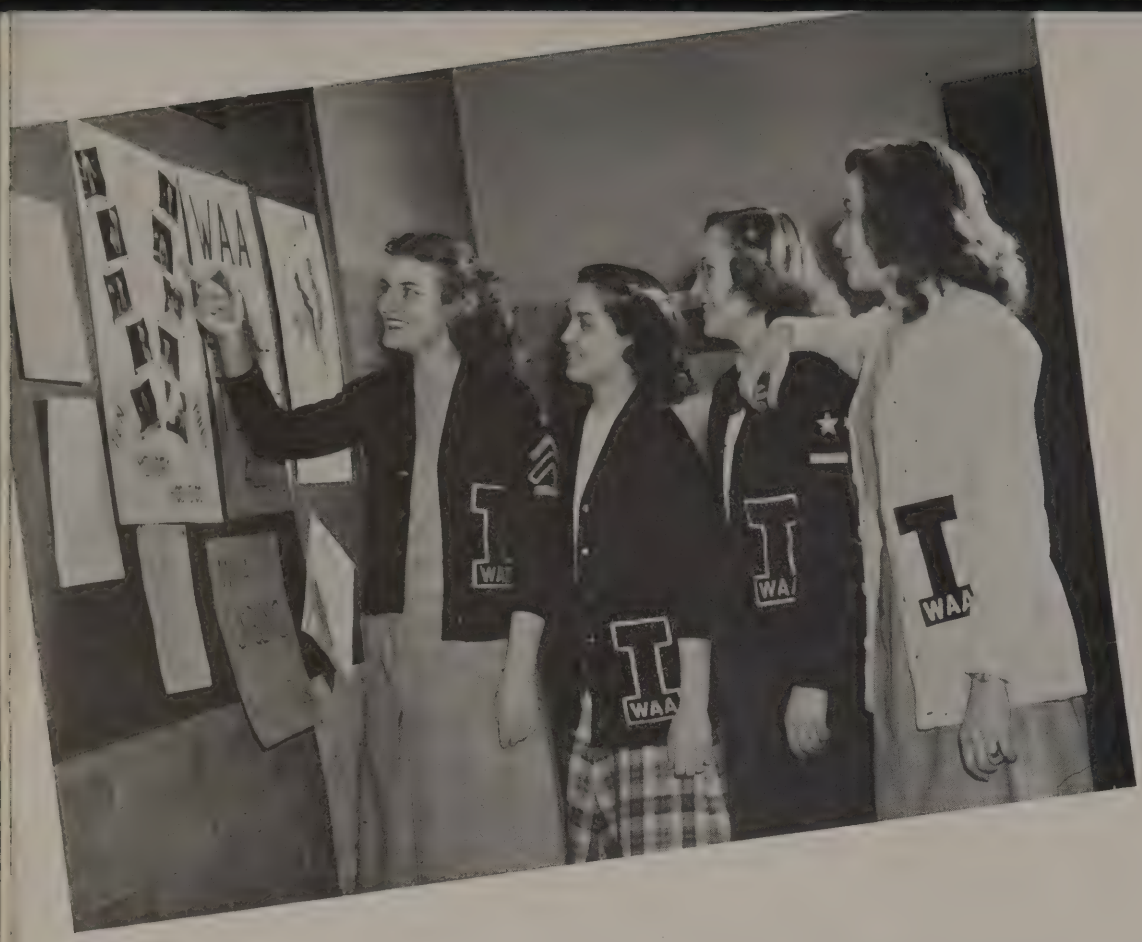
ORGANIZATION AND TEAMWORK MARK THE WAA PROGRAM

Women's Athletic Association, ably guided by President Margaret Burt, promotes optimum physical efficiency among those girls interested in sports. It also provides opportunities for the girls to develop their talents and skills and leads them toward high ideals and good sportsmanship.

Climaxing the two most popular sports of the year, volleyball and basketball, are the class and inter-sorority tournaments which provide wholesome fun and competition.

The girls of the Delta Sigma Sorority (right) consisting of Dot Shields, Doris Cassel, Pat Ross, Rose Wunderbaum, Margaret Boyce, Jerry Jack, Wilma Terry, Marcy Drain, and Betty Johnson, wear double crowns this year, having walked away with the inter-sorority basketball and volleyball tournaments. The sophomores took the class volleyball title, and the seniors emerged victorious in the class basketball tourney.



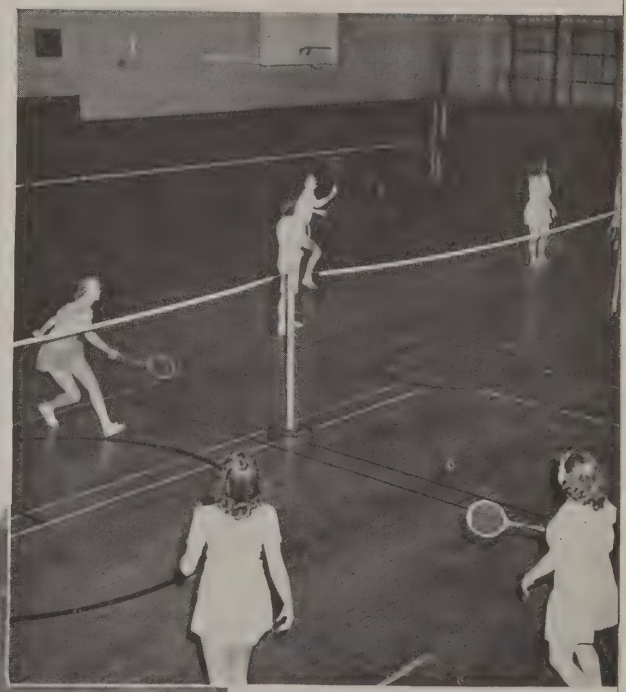
Not many girls on the campus are lucky enough to wear those coveted "I's." After three years, the following girls have, through participation in various activities, completed the requirements: Margaret Burt, Bettie Smith, Margaret Boyce, Dot Shields.

WAA RECREATION TRAINS FOR AN ACTIVE USEFUL LIFE

Teamwork, coordination, and healthy bodies result from the tumbling program.

Camping trips are fun to plan, fun to take. Spring offers opportunities for such trips, and WAA members are quick to take advantage of it. Left to right: Pat Moody, LaVerne Ludwig, Charlotte Ashcraft, Julie Lubker, and Sharon Richardson.

"Watching the birdie" becomes difficult with some of those smash shots by badminton class members.



No skinned shins with proper protection,, even in a fast game of hockey.

Grand right and left! This is the call frequently heard as the love for old-time square dancing comes to light.

IT'S THE INDIVIDUALS THAT MAKE STATE CLAIMED A POPULATION AND FACULTY.

ANY CITY WHAT IT IS.
OF SOME 3000 STUDENTS

DEAN J. E. GRINNELL, Dean of Instruction and sponsor of Blue Key, has done much to bring the standards of our college up to their present high level. Reminiscing over the souvenirs of four long years are Don Sargent (with the '43 Sycamore) and Dot Annakin, Paul Brown, Eleanor Johnson, and Jo Seamon.

SENIOR CLASS

Midst a flurry of activity, the class of 1948 rushed around tying up tag ends, dramatizing dramatics, personalizing personalities, and accomplishing accomplishments before attempting their academic pursuits.

Hundreds of loyal alums returned for Home-coming giving Blue and White Day a festive air. George Lowe and June Risher were co-chairmen of the event.

In January, the senior class heard their president Don Sargent pledge five-hundred dollars to the Parsons-Sandison Living Memorial Fund.

Commencement Exercises, Sunday, June 13, climaxed Senior Week activities.

Aha! This picture is sheer evidence that husbands sit back and take life easy. Condemnation shouldn't be too strong since Hal Schaller is willing to assist his wife, Ruth, in placing the food on the table.

Dormite Dot Shields waits patiently while Carolyn Haste replaces empty coke bottles. This is one of the weekly chores.

Jack Kerins and Harold Bitzegaio, like most of the men on campus, are anxious to get away from studies long enough to try their skills at fishing.

Eugene Erne and Betty Roach swing out to the tune of the grill juke-box. Vern Ward and Jean Rombough are searching for a number which requires less energy.

Officers Bob Foxworthy, Don Markle, and Jack Hopkins, inspect Prom formals of Donna Stuebe and Winnie Myers.

JUNIOR CLASS

Displaying the willing and lively spirit that will make a great senior class, the class of 1949 directed their energies to planning the Junior Prom. Chairman Bill Burke and his committee brought the nationally popular Claude Thornhill orchestra to State to furnish the music. The Prom queen looked radiantly happy.

With the same enthusiasm that was demonstrated this year, the junior class will move into senior position next fall to await the thrills of receiving diplomas on Commencement day.

"Saturday evening, 7:30? Why, I'd love to see that show." The secret is out. Now we know how Kay Stevenson manages to keep her dates straightened out. She owns a "little black book."

It looks as if the Alpha Sigs are sprucing up their domicile for another open-house. Tony Mitchell, Tom Scott, Art Sacra, and Paul Goble are anything but the domestic type, yet this is something that has to be done.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Neither fish nor fowl; neither freshmen nor upperclassmen—yet the sophomores are established college students.

This class was short on social activities but long on studies and athletic participation. With the exception of Bob Royer, the starting five of John Wooden's Sycamores were all sophomores.

Faculty advisers for student guidance are Dr. Cloyd Anthony and Mr. Harry Barrick.

Paul Budreau has no mercy for Nancy Johnson who is desperately trying to keep from getting splashed and still get a drink of water.

"Oh, my aching feet!" moans Carolyn Mauk. Bet she'll never make it to her room on fourth floor.

Rose Wunderbaum, Anita Allan, Irene Sallay, Marcella Drain, and Olive Leath are taking time off from their studies to decorate the dorm Christmas tree.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Successive freshman classes seem much alike, yet each has a character of its own. The class of 1951 was no exception. Freshmen this year, like all freshmen, were characterized by zeal and enthusiasm.

Freshmen week "oriented" them with the tests—psychological, English, physical, clinical; reading—, lectures, parties, and a mixer.

Excitement continued apace with rush and "Squeal" in the third week. But no stereotypes they, these freshmen staged an original Freshman Frolic, and gave the sophomores a terrific pushing around before losing the greased pole battle on Blue and White Day.

Green beanies disappeared at the end of the fall quarter; the frosh were college men and women.

Whee, fun for all at the Freshman Frolic. These students are participating in one of the many varied games of the evening.

Dick Turner is on the verge of carrying out his threat to wash Joanne Goble's face with snow. From her expression it is obvious that she doesn't mind at all.

How was Dale Loekle to know that when he reminded Janet Moore about their coke date he was talking to her sister Jane? Live and learn, Dale; we all make mistakes even if they aren't as pleasant as this one.
